

President's Report

By Lorraine Zamora

As the saying goes, "It Takes a Family."

Three Parks has been practicing doing things as a family—a political family—since its founding in 1975. In our campaign activities, we join together enthusiastically to support progressive causes and candidates, and that's how the club has grown to over 200 active members.

This fall has been no different. I want to thank the board members who volunteered to coordinate, lead and participate in campaign activities to help progressive Democrats win on Election Day, here on the Upper West Side and in nearby swing areas. They include: Lynn and Steve Max, Chuck Wall, Mary Ann Marks, Wendy Diller, Miriam Rabban, Irene Shrier, Daniel Tsadok, Ellen Flax, Cynthia Doty, Corinne Constantine, Daniele Gerard, David Lazarus, Lois Safian and Tim Eckersley, not to mention the many club members who showed up to lend a hand.

As a result of their efforts:

- 118 club members and friends wrote a whopping 3,521 postcards to promote Democratic Congressional candidate Robert Zimmerman in Nassau County.
- Groups of volunteers made four weekend trips to Long Island to canvass for Zimmerman.
- A baker's dozen turned up every weekend at the Three Parks table at 104th Street and Broadway to get out the vote.
- Early birds got up to hand out flyers at the West 96th St./Broadway subway station on six weekday mornings.
- Late risers campaigned for Democratic Congressional Candidate Max Rose at the Staten Island Ferry Terminal on five Tuesday afternoons.
- Two carfuls of volunteers drove to Allentown, PA to canvass for Democratic Congressional candidate Susan Wild.
- A weekend trip to the Hudson Valley was planned to canvass for Democratic Congressional candidate

Josh Riley.

Again, a million thanks!!

All that's left to say is that I hope the Democrats have an overwhelming win on Election Day, and I wish all Three Parks club members a very Happy
Thanksgiving!!
